Merrill tells an engaging story of her down-to-earth, yet spiritual life, beginning with her childhood in war-time England. You learn how destiny plays a role in the meeting of her husband of fifty-three years, and how Patas travels as an Air Force wife reveal her genuine love and respect for her fellow human beings of all races. Readers will be touched by the innate goodness of her heart and at times her childlike naivete of life. Her story is expressed with great honesty and sprinkled throughout with a generous dose of humor and wit. Her life takes a compelling turn when after age forty, her psychic inclinations lead to truly phenomenal experiences on her mystical pathway. These occur after Pat asks God to give her total proof of life after death. During her forties, she has four out-of-body occurrences, three to the other side. Two spirit guides also enter her life and have communicated with her for twenty-eight years. Pat wishes to share with others that total unconditional love encompasses all those who live their lives well here on earth. She loves to give peace of mind to others about life after death by sharing her own extraordinary experiences.
