AURA OF LOVE This little book, Aura of Love, has grown from the 47 years Joan and I have shared. Its content is the resultant contemplation of Gods blessings conferred when He brought us together, and continuing until the present. Assembling the book from snippets recorded in letters, homemade birthday and anniversary cards, notes sent with flowers, etc. , was in itself a labor of love. The Aura of Love also records demonstrations of affection I have received from others, and deeply emotional expressions for a few very special people we have encountered along lifes way. May it be a praise not only to those who have the aura, but also to its Source, our Lord, its provider. My first encounter with the Aura of Love occurred as I looked over a new congregation. Eye to eye contact, is important to every public speaker, but especially is this true of Christian ministers. The spiritual link to his hearers is the Gospel message that he expounds, but eye contact is his primary physical link. This link was broken suddenly,...
